

It is an invasion of privacy to have unsolicited business calls received at a home phone number regardless of a "prior business relationship". If I want to talk to a bank, I'll call them.